CASE STUDY – ‘Ask Maitri’ by IGL (Energy/Utility)

Outcome in a year

The screenshot shows the 'Ask Maitri' app interface. At the top, there's a green header with the app logo and name. Below it, a message from the bot says 'Namaste,' followed by a detailed welcome message from 'I am Maitri, Realtime IGL Virtual Assistant.' A 'Frequently Asked Questions' section is visible with links like 'Raise a complaint', 'My outstanding bills', and 'Report gas leakage'. A large orange box at the bottom displays a customer query: 'Your outstanding amount is Rs 580.00. Due date is 30-06-2021.' There's also a 'Customer Queries' section with a placeholder 'Ask your query here'.

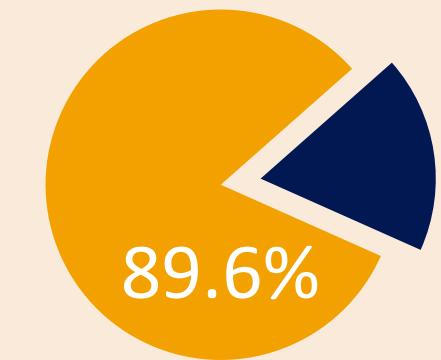

This screenshot shows a WhatsApp conversation with 'IGL's AskMaitri WhatsApp'. The user asks 'what is my outstanding bill'. The bot responds with a message asking for a 10-digit BP number or registered mobile number. It then provides three communication options: 'Multiple Formats' (phone, Facebook, email). The user replies with the number '5000155440'. The bot then asks if the shared number is the BP Number or registered phone number. The user replies with 'BP Number'. The bot then asks for the connection details, which the user provides: 'Mratunjay Tewari having registered address 1137, 11TH FLOOR, NOIDA SECTOR 79, NOIDA, Uttar Pradesh, 201306?'. The bot then asks 'Yes/No' and receives a 'yes' response. Finally, the bot thanks the user and provides the outstanding amount and due date again.
